

St Ippolyts Church Bells

been put up by Taylor & Sons Loughborough. Two old bells have been recast & one retuned at the expense of and two new bells given by Ethelreda Waudby and the Sixth by her father Revd. W R P Waudby."

General

There is a ground floor ring in the baptistery and the tower has a ring of six bells

Bell Year Weight Tuned (cw- to qr-lb)

Treble	1893	4-0-01	E
2	1893	4-3-00	D
3	1893	5-2-19	C
4	1893	6-3-04	B
5	1721	8-2-20	A
Tenor	1893	12-3-06	G

Usage

There is a chiming hammer on the tenor and the clock strikes the hours.

There is a weekly ringing practise on Wednesday evenings from 19.45 until 21.00. Service ringing is done when possible and the bells are available for weddings. Further information can be obtained from the Tower Captain, Shelagh Cox Hitchin 432445.

History

All the 1893 bells were cast by John Taylor & Co, Loughborough. The 5th bell was founded by John Waylett.

There is a plaque in the church that reads:

"To the Glory of God and for the use of the Parish of St. Ippolyts the Peal of six bells in this Church has Larger versions of the bell pictures on this site are available. Please contact the webmaster for details.